Proprietary to Worldview Travel advisors, our aDX system is a modern travel management tool that will save you valuable time — time which you can then redirect towards serving more customers and driving more sales.

Simplified booking

With aDX, air and cruise are bookable with hotel, insurance and more launching later in 2016. You can also add services to the aDX system that are booked outside of the platform making it easy to invoice and book complete itineraries.

Upfront commission information

With the aDX system you will save yourself a step because pricing and commissions are displayed in the initial search results. There are no debit* memos to deal with, guaranteed, and there is no cost to use the aDX system.

- + Find the best products faster with visible amenities
- + Close more sales with beautiful color quotes
- + Upsell more product with side-by-side comparison pricing
- + Bundle services for added commissions
- + Waste less time with integrated quote, invoicing and reports
- + Reduce your risk with air desk support and zero air debit memos

Multiple GDS access

Worldview uniquely offers the flexibility of access to Sabre, Apollo, Amadeus and Worldspan platforms.

Spend less time administering and more time building your business.

"Efficiency makes an agent money. It frees up time for more touches with more clients. It is so much better to make a booking in 2 min, instead of 20. I am up over 15% in revenue this year. A direct result of using aDX. The bottom line is... aDX makes you more money!!!"

Adam S. Rog

*No debit memo guarantee is only provided to agents booking air through the aDX point-and-click platform.

You're not alone

No doubt the freedom and autonomy you enjoy are two of the key reasons why you love working as a self-employed travel advisor. However, sometimes, in order to provide your clients with the best service and information, you may wish to consult with an outside resource. Worldview Travel provides you with a few different ways to do this.

AgentShare

When you become a Worldview Travel agent you gain access to advice from fellow Worldview Travel professionals through our AgentShare network. How does it work? Let's say you have a client who would like to book a trip to Sorrento, Italy, including hotel accommodations. You're not familiar with the best options. To resolve the issue you pose the question on the AgentShare network and, within minutes, you receive feedback on a number of highly-recommended choices.

Consult with our experienced Worldview Travel experts

Our team has you covered with our collective experience in all areas of the travel industry. They possess extensive knowledge, experience and expertise. Best of all they are available to consult with you. They are also very well connected across North America, which means if you require an answer to a high-level question on a provider, they can get it for you. So don't be shy. Remember, we work for you.

Work independently, yet feel like you are part of a team.
